

Feature: Change in layout of search page based on the user's selection

Scenario: The user wants to perform a species search using the species name

Given The user is on the search page

When The user selects the species radio button

Then The search hint in the search box should display the text "Scientific/Common Name"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a species search within their state

Given The user is on the search page

When The user selects the state radio button

Then The search hint in the search box should display the text "State"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a species search within their county

Given The user is on the search page

When The user selects the county radio button

Then An additional search box should appear

And The search hint for the first search box should display "County"

And The search hint for the second search box should display "State"

Feature: Change in layout of map page based on the user's selection

Scenario: The user wants to perform a sightings search within their state

Given The user is on the map page

When The user selects the "Common name by state" from the drop-down bar

Then Two search boxes should be displayed

And The first search box should display the hint "Common Name"

And The second search box should display the hint "State"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a sightings search within their state

Given The user is on the map page

When The user selects the "Scientific name by state" from the drop-down bar

Then Two search boxes should be displayed

And The first search box should display the hint "Scientific Name"

And The second search box should display the hint "State"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a sightings search within their county

Given The user is on the map page

When The user selects the "Common name by county" from the drop-down bar

Then Three search boxes should be displayed

And The first search box should display the hint "Common Name"

And The second search box should display the hint "County"

And The third search box should display the hint "State"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a sightings search within their county

Given The user is on the map page

When The user selects the "Scientific name by county" from the drop-down bar

Then Three search boxes should be displayed

And The first search box should display the hint "Scientific Name"

And The second search box should display the hint "County"

And The third search box should display the hint "State"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a nearby sightings search

Given The user is on the map page

When The user selects the "Nearby sightings (common name)" from the drop-down bar

Then One search boxes should be displayed

And The first search box should display the hint "Common Name"

Scenario: The user wants to perform a nearby sightings search

Given The user is on the map page

When The user selects the “Nearby sightings (scientific name)” from the drop-down bar

Then One search boxes should be displayed

And The first search box should display the hint “Scientific Name”