

Feature: Permissions

Scenario: User opens Search page for the first time or has denied application access to location

Given Application does not have permission to use the user's location

When User opens the Search page or has previously denied application access to location

Then A request for access to the user's location appears on the screen

And The user should be able to select yes or no